

LPCI PARTNER FIELD STAFF (11/3/16)

Through the Lesser Prairie Chicken Initiative, the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) teams up with more than 25 partner agencies and organizations to expand the field delivery, science, and communications capacity for lesser prairie-chicken conservation. Pooling resources, partner organizations fund range conservationists and wildlife biologists based in field offices in critical habitat areas throughout the Southern Plains states. These LPCI Partner Field Staff work one-on-one with landowners who chose to participate in LPCI's voluntary range conservation programs.

LPCI partners also fund a GIS mapping specialist who provides crucial mapping support for LPCI's conservation efforts. Members of the LPCI Partner Field Team are listed below, along with the partner agencies and organizations that fund their positions.
